

1017-1035

born 995 died 1035

CANUTE - By conquest & election
Danish King

1017

Norman Adventures in Italy take part against the Byzantines in the south

1017

~ (1014-1035)

CANUTE (w/KNUT)

King of Denmark & England

Born about 995; died at Shaftesbury England in 1035. He succeeded his father Sweyn or Swein, ruler of Denmark and English in 1014

At first he governed England jointly with Edmund, the Saxon ruler, but when the latter was assassinated in 1017 he became ruler of the entire country. At first he severely enforced the laws, but he soon exhibited evidences of mildness and justice. The general assembly restored English customs and later equal rights were guaranteed to both English and Danish subjects while many of the former received important public offices. His government was best since Alfred.

He annexed Norway in 1028 placing HACO on the throne. In 1031 he established supremacy in Scotland. At his death: Eldest son, Sweyn (King of Norway); 2nd son Harold (King of England); 3rd son Hardekanute (King of Denmark)

1017

(1) Grimaldi Dynasty

Native family founded 1017.

Awarded territory of present day
Monaco, France, by Holy Roman Emperor in 1297

Apr 19, 1956 Prince of Monaco Rainier III

(May 31, 1923 -) married

American Grace Kelly (Nov 12, 1929 - ) . Apr 19, 1956

1017

Canute II is supreme in England.

1017-1035

CANUTE

b 995 d 1035

King of England by conquest & election 1017-1035
Danish King